

I urge the FCC to research the impact of the placement, lighting and height of towers on migratory bird mortality rates. This research to be used to adopt regulations to protect migratory birds. Thank you in advance for your consideration.